

The Inter-Mountain

ERCC crowns king and queen

Submitted photo Jim Cost and Dixie Gutmann, residents of Elkins Rehabilitation & Care Center, receive the honor of being crowned Valentine King and Queen at the facility's 2017 Valentin's Day Ball.

ELKINS — Jim Cost and Dixie Gutmann, residents of Elkins Rehabilitation & Care Center, received the honor of being crowned Valentine King and Queen at the facility's 2017 Valentin's Day Ball.

"We are starting a new tradition at ERCC," said Patricia Summerfield, administrator at Elkins Rehabilitation & Care Center.

“We wanted to bring a little something extra to our residents for Valentine’s Day and show them how much they are loved.”

The ball was held in the dining room of the facility and attended by residents, families, and friends. Residents, staff, families, friends and visitors from the community cast votes for Valentine’s Day King and Queen prior to the ball.

The winners were crowned during the event and were presented with special gifts in honor of the occasion.

The queen was also presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers. Don Olson provided live music for the festivities.

“Our Activity Department did a wonderful job of planning and coordinating this ‘first annual Valentine’s Day Ball’ for our residents,” said Summerfield.

“The event was greatly enjoyed by all in attendance.”

More pictures from the day can be viewed at the facility’s Facebook page: www.Facebook.com/ElkinsRehabilitationandCareCenter.

COMMENTS

0 Comments

Sort by Oldest

Add a comment...

Facebook Comments Plugin